NOTICE REGARDING E-MAILS AND FAXES SENT TO THE COURT

In the above-captioned cases, sending letters, objections, and other correspondence to the Court via fax or e-mail is improper. All such materials must be properly filed and served in accordance with the Court's Order Approving Notice, Case Management and Administrative Procedures, dated October 6, 2005 (the "Case Management Order"). The Case Management Order is available on the Court's electronic docket and on the Debtor's Case Management website (www.deltadocket.com) under "Case Management Procedures."

Absent prior permission from the Court, letters, objections, and correspondence received by fax or e-mail will not be accepted, reviewed, or otherwise considered, unless the requesting party has demonstrated to the Court that s/he cannot communicate with the Court by any other method. All faxes and e-mails received by the Court without prior approval will be disregarded and not considered filed with or received by the Court for any purpose.
